R 20-605 - Comments

1. Paragraphs 5.a.(1) and 5.b. - The use of the phrase "their position" is ungrammatical. If this form is used, the proper phrasing is "their positions." It is suggested that the phrasing used might be that employed in paragraph 4.a.
2. Paragraph 5.a.(2) - In the last two lines of this paragraph the word "or" has inadvertently been inserted twice.
3. Paragraph 12.b. - The word "conversely" is used improperly. It is suggested that it be omitted so that the line in which it appears will read "employees are satisfactory or will attach the memorandum".
4. Paragraph 14.a. - "Judgment" is the preferred spelling.
5. Paragraph 14.b.(6) - The word "an" should be inserted before the word "approved."
6. Paragraph 14.c.(1) - The word "certification" should be in the plural.
7. Paragraph 14.c.(2) - The word "memorandum" should be in the plural.
